

Partner Book Project: DUE DATE: _____

Name _____ Name _____

Title of book _____

Author _____ Final Grade: _____

Your project may be nearly anything (see my website for a list of suggestions), but the following elements are required. Be prepared to explain who did what (I expect 50/50 contributions).

Warning: Do NOT include images from a movie version of your book.

| CRITERIA | 25 points (full credit) | Point(s) deduction | Your score |
|--|--|---|------------|
| 1. Title, author, setting, main characters | All there, spelled correctly | All there but something misspelled Missing a component | |
| 2. Brief written summary. (no less than 3 sentences; no more than 5) which does NOT give away the ending. | Flawless: complete sentences, correct spelling and punctuation | Errors in spelling or punctuation Too many or not enough sentences Sentence fragments, run-on sentences, or comma splices | |
| 3. Rating of book (one to five stars) and reason. (If you differ in your opinion, you must average out your rating and explain.) Three sentences minimum. | Flawless: complete sentences, correct spelling and punctuation | Errors in spelling or punctuation Not enough sentences Sentence fragments, run-on sentences, or comma splices | |
| 4. *Oral presentation: 2-minute maximum. Both partners must participate. Schedule with Ms. Garrity at least 2 days in advance. You MAY use note cards. | Nailed it: Eye contact with audience Clear enunciation Adequate volume No giggling Smooth delivery | Inadequate or no eye contact Hard to understand Hard to hear Sillies took over (giggles) Starts and stops; inadequate preparation | |

*You may create a video of your presentation. You must email your video to Ms. Garrity (rlgarrity@jmcoss.org). No flash drives. Period.